

WALMART CANADA BANK MASTERCARD REWARDS PROGRAM TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These terms and conditions apply to the Walmart Canada Bank MasterCard Rewards Program (the “Program”). You may earn Walmart Rewards based on your spending on your Walmart MasterCard, in accordance with these terms and conditions. These terms and conditions replace any previous terms and conditions provided to you with respect to the Program. By signing, activating or using your Card, you are accepting these terms and conditions.

Definitions

Unless otherwise defined below, all capitalized terms have the meanings given to them in your Cardholder Agreement.

“Account” means your Walmart Canada Bank MasterCard Account.

“Card” means a credit card issued by Walmart Canada Bank to a Cardholder under your Account.

“Cardholder” means each cardholder on your Account.

“Cardholder Agreement” means your Walmart Canada Bank MasterCard Cardholder Agreement.

“Purchases” means purchases of goods or services charged to the Account, and excludes Cash Advances, credit adjustments, interest, fees and other charges.

“We”, “our” or “us” means Walmart Canada Bank.

“You” or “your” means the Primary Cardholder under the Cardholder Agreement.

“Walmart Rewards” means the rewards earned and/or redeemed as part of the Program that can be used to pay for Purchases at Walmart stores in Canada.

Eligibility

Provided your Account is in Good Standing, the Program is automatically available to you. Access to your Walmart Rewards is provided through your Card. You cannot earn or redeem Walmart Rewards (i) if your Account is not in Good Standing; and/or (ii) after the date your Account is closed. In addition, Walmart Rewards cannot be earned after the date the Program is terminated.

Earning Walmart Rewards

Subject to these terms and conditions, you will earn 1% in Walmart Rewards for every dollar spent on Purchases made on your Account and an additional .25% in Walmart Rewards for every dollar spent on Purchases made on your Account when each Cardholder uses the Card at Walmart stores in Canada (except for purchases of prescription drugs). We calculate Walmart Rewards based on the aggregate amount of your Purchases, before tax, credits and adjustments. Walmart Rewards may be deducted from your Account and from future earned Walmart Rewards when credit transactions or adjustments that are posted to your Account are not offset by Walmart Rewards earned on new Purchases. Walmart Rewards for Purchases are rounded down to the nearest one cent increment and any remaining amounts will be disregarded and will not be accumulated or included in the calculation of your Walmart Rewards. Walmart Rewards have no cash value, do not constitute your property for any purpose, and cannot be sold, transferred or encumbered in any way.

Walmart Rewards are earned once a Purchase transaction has been posted to the Account and typically available the next business day. For Purchases which are not made on a regular banking day, there may be a short delay in your Account being credited with your Walmart Rewards.

When any Cardholder returns anything purchased using the Card, there will be a deduction of your Walmart Rewards by the equivalent amount of the rewards originally received on the purchase.

From time to time, additional Walmart Rewards may be awarded in connection with special promotions that may be offered by us. These promotions will be subject to these terms and conditions and to the terms and conditions that accompany any such promotion.

Redemption and Use of Walmart Rewards

Walmart Rewards may be redeemed by the Primary Cardholder and by any Authorized User on the Account. We will treat any Walmart Rewards redeemed by an Authorized User as having been redeemed with your knowledge and authorization. Walmart Rewards that you or any Authorized User redeems will be deducted from the Walmart Rewards balance on your Account at the time that they are redeemed. Walmart Rewards can only be redeemed at participating Walmart stores in Canada for payment (or partial payment) of goods and services. Walmart Rewards cannot be redeemed for cash and cannot be redeemed for more than the equivalent dollar value of your Purchase. To redeem Walmart Rewards, the Cardholder must redeem a minimum of $5.00 worth of Walmart Rewards. That means that the total Purchase amount must be at least $5.00 before taxes. If you or an Authorized User wishes to redeem more than $5.00 worth of Walmart Rewards, you must do so in $5.00 increments. To redeem Walmart Rewards, please present your Card in person at a Walmart store in Canada and have it swiped at a cashier's machine at the time of purchase. Because you can only redeem Walmart Rewards by having your Card swiped, redemptions are not allowed if you do not have your Card with you.

Examples of how Walmart Rewards redemption rules operate:

Rewards Example #1

Redemption Not Allowed – Minimum Threshold

Your total purchase of groceries comes to $4.45 (before tax). Even if you have accumulated Walmart Rewards on your Account, redemption of your Walmart Rewards will not be allowed as the sale amount is below the minimum rewards threshold of $5.00 before taxes.

Rewards Example #2

Redemption Not Allowed – Card not in Good Standing

Your total purchase of groceries comes to $25.85. Although you have enough Walmart Rewards accumulated on the Account to redeem for this Purchase, your Account is not in Good Standing. Your redemption will not be allowed.

Rewards Example #3

Redemption Allowed

Your total purchase of groceries comes to $72.35 and you have $63.77 of Walmart Rewards accumulated on your Account. Assuming your Account is in Good Standing, your Purchase is in respect of eligible goods and services that you can use your Walmart Rewards to redeem (see below), you will be allowed to redeem your Walmart Rewards for a total value of $60, as $60 is the next lowest $5.00 increment below the Purchase amount. You will be required to use another form of payment for the remaining $12.35.

Walmart Rewards may not be redeemed towards payment of your Account. In addition, Walmart Rewards may not be redeemed against the purchase of certain goods and services such as: (i) the purchase of tobacco, lottery tickets, alcohol and prescription medication; (ii) money transfer services and certain other licensees that may be located within Walmart stores in Canada; (iii) cash and cash equivalent transactions (such as balance transfers and cash advances); (iv) any other products or services that may not be legally offered in connection with the Program; and (v) such other products or services that we may determine at any time in our sole discretion to be ineligible for redemption.

In addition, the use and acceptance of Walmart Rewards may be subject to limitations set by Walmart Canada Bank from time to time, at its discretion.

In such event, neither we, nor our affiliates or service providers will be liable in respect of any such incomplete transaction.

Assignment

We may assign, transfer or sell our rights, benefits or obligations under these terms and conditions to a third party and you consent to this without us having to notify you. Taxes

You are solely responsible for any tax liability related to your receipt of Walmart Rewards and your participation in the Program. We do not issue tax receipts.

Severability

If any provision of these terms and conditions is unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such provision will, as to such jurisdiction only, be ineffective only to the extent of such unenforceability, without invalidating the remaining provisions of these terms and conditions.

Closing Your Account/Cancelling Your Participation

We may, with or without notice, suspend or cancel your participation in the Program and cancel or reverse any Walmart Rewards that you have earned, without compensation to you, if we have reason to believe that you are in default of these terms and conditions or of your obligations under the Cardholder Agreement, if we suspect fraud or abuse by you relating to the Program or your Card Account, or for any other reason.

If you or Walmart closes your Account, all Walmart Rewards accrued shall be automatically and immediately forfeited.
